Dear Mr. Chinappi,

September 27, 2016

I hope this letter finds you well. I very much appreciate you sharing your time and knowledge; as a young person, your advice is incredibly valuable. Our conversation really helped reaffirm my beliefs in patience and integrity. Moving forward, I look forward to building a business the right way and hopefully giving you the chance to see me excel. I would love to continue to talk periodically and look forward to learning more from you. Once again, I truly appreciate your time and willingness to meet.

Very Sincerely,

Parker Christian Ulich
